

STAMFORD AND RUTLAND TABLE TENNIS LEAGUE

Results and Tables: Week 2-5

Division 1

Although Stamford School have suffered their first defeats of the season, they remain top of Division 1 of the Stamford and Rutland Table Tennis League by virtue of individual matches won. They were first defeated by title favourites Archway 'A', for whom Shaun Murray and Dave Rowell secured full houses. The following week they travelled to MTTG and were faced by Dave Needham in fine form and Andy Goodacre taking a break from his music commitments. Two of Andy's matches went the full distance, but his experience told against the school's youngsters.

Dave Needham also won all of his matches against Uffington CC 'A', but with teammates unavailable, he could not avoid overall defeat for MTTG.

Archway 'A' visited Braunston 'A' and earned another 7-3 victory. Daniel Fielding was undefeated on this occasion, while Shaun Murray picked up two further points. Shaun lost to Carl Slevin, however, who earned a brace for the villagers.

STAMFORD AND RUTLAND TABLE TENNIS LEAGUE

Division 2

Stamford Free Church have been busy at the tables in Division 2. They have played four matches since the last report and, having won three of them, comfortably lead the division. Vic Hoffman has earned three man-of-the-match awards for his full-houses in the matches against Bourne TTC 'C', Uffington CC 'B' and Tallington. With strong support from Rob Elliott and John Chambers in each of these matches, the team will certainly be hunting honours come the spring.

Uffington CC 'B' lost 2-8 to Stamford Free Church, with Rob Alston winning twice; but the team was an interesting overall selection, with the League President's three sons picked to play.

The one match that the Churchmen did lose was against Bourne TTC 'B' for whom Stephen Smith and a rejuvenated Joe Orford earned three wins apiece.

Joe was also man-of-the-match against Tallington. A 9-1 victory here certainly highlights potential for a successful season. Stephen Smith again earned three points and Christopher Holland two.

Bourne 'A' began their challenge with a 7-3 win against Uffington CC 'B'. Ziggy Poberezniuk and David Chapman for the hosts, and Chris Gardiner for the cricketers each won twice, but it was last season's Division 2 singles champion, Harry Jackson, who completed the evening unbeaten.
