HOME TEAM		AWAY TEAM	WINNER
Mackintosh H 10	v	Wonky Bar A 2	Mackintosh H

The Wonky Bar A team of former Bundesliga 1 player Ralf Dooley, Anthony Jones and talented junior Callum Pascoe were unable to find the dazzling form, that they had displayed in the semi-final. The Mackintosh H team of Peter Gordon, Jack Fletcher and Steve Wilson put in a good team effort to comfortably win the match 10-2. The star player for Mackintosh H was Jack Fletcher for his 2 wins without reply.

Memory Lane B 12	v	Mackintosh J 11	Memory Lane B

This match was nip and tuck from start to finish. The Memory Lane B team of Przemyslaw Pason, Tomaz Bak and Adrian May built up a lead of 8-5, but Cellan Hall, Shvan Saadallah and Sorin Moise of Mackintosh J showed determination and gradually pegged back the lead until the score was 11-10 to Memory Lane B going into the final game between Przemyslaw and Sorin. Sorin took the first set comfortably to make the score 11-11, but Przemyslaw battled hard to gain a lead in the second set, which Sorin was unable to overhaul despite coming very close. Przemyslaw eventually took this set 21-19 to make the overall score 12-11 and to win the match for Memory Lane B, as a draw would not have been enough for the Mackintosh team with Memory Lane having already won 5 events. Przemyslaw with 5 sets was the man of the match.

Dave Kennett Cup
Division 3
2017 / 2018

HOME TEAM		AWAY TEAM	WINNER
Rhiwbina E 3	v	Atradius 10	Atradius

Rhiwbina E fielded Bruce Maskell, Clive Saunders and Steve Burt against the Atradius team of Jeremy Walton, Brian Scales and Ioan Rees. Bruce got Rhiwbina E off to a good start with a 2-0 win over Jeremy, but Atradius quickly turned things round and won the next 5 games to reach an unassailable position of 10-3. Brian and Ioan for Atradius both had 2 wins without reply and were backed up with 1 win from Jeremy.

Cardiff City D 11	v	Wonky Bar C 11	Cardiff City D on events

This was another match that was very closely contested and went right to the wire. David Flower was on top form for Cardiff City D winning all 3 of his matches and he was ably assisted by teammates Connor McMichael and Wei Wei. The Wonky Bar C team of Dave Jones, Paul Routledge and Mike Pointon fought hard and were favourites to win with the score at 11-9 to Wonky Bar going into the final game between Connor McMichael and Paul Routledge. However Connor managed to beat Paul 2-0 to level the match score at 11-11 and Cardiff City D won the match on events.
